

Nepalaya Book Fair

Nepalaya hosted a vibrant two-day book fair at r-sala on May 10 and 11, drawing readers of all ages. Visitors explored both old and new books, enjoying the warm and welcoming atmosphere. Families and friends spent quality time browsing books and engaging with our team. Visitor appreciation was a space dedicated to Nepali literature. A standout moment was the enthusiastic presence of Gen Z readers, showing deep interest in stories and self-growth. The event blossomed into a fair, celebrating new ideas and connection. We're excited to host more such gatherings soon.
